Eighteen Little Preludes

Synopsis

Audio Available For Download Included in Eighteen Little Preludes are pieces developed from finger exercises composed by Bach, as well as instructional pieces developed for his son's compositional development. Use this carefully edited volume to provide a gradual transition for your students from the easier works found in the Anna Magdalena Bach Notebook to more difficult works found in the Two-Part Inventions.

Customer Reviews

The 18 Little Preludes for piano/harpsicord are not well known. They are very playable (with some interesting twists) and sound good. This edition has lots of useful information about the various pieces and also very helpful are the directions for ornamentations. Well worth having!

Nice collection, but I would have preferred the Albert edition with much better fingering.
