Roulette Strategies

Synopsis

Roulette is a casino game and one that attracts millions of people over the globe to casinos around the world. Casinos make billions and billions of dollars in an year in profits from the Roulette machines. It could be trillions too who know. Most players lose, in fact every player who consistently plays Roulette will lose all the money that he uses to play Roulette because of the house edge. The edge manifests over the long run and the players go broke. However if millions played Roulette with the correct strategy thousands should be millionaires but thatâ™s not the case. And in this book we use computer simulations to help you win Roulette, a lot of different strategies are evaluated and tried with computer simulations to find out the best strategy to play Roulette. We also present a case of a mysterious gambler who comes to the casino and wins 10,000 times the amount he started with on the Roulette Table? Can you emulate his success?
